Miscellaneous:

This Limited Product Warranty will be solely governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of North Carolina and the United States, without regard for any choice or conflict of laws considerations, and the Purchaser agrees to submit to personal jurisdiction of the federal and state courts in North Carolina in event of any such dispute. If any provision, or portion thereof, of this Limited Product Warranty is unenforceable or invalid under, or contrary to, any applicable statute or rule of law, it will be modified to the least extent necessary to make it enforceable, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Limited Product Warranty, and the remaining Limited Product Warranty will remain in full force and effect. The exclusion of consequential and incidental damages, and the provision of this Limited Product Warranty limiting remedies hereunder to replacement or refund, are independent provisions, and any determination that any provision fails of its essential purpose or any other determination that either of the above provisions is unenforceable, shall not be construed to make the other provision unenforceable. This Limited Product Warranty may not be transferred or assigned, including by operation of law. The Limited Product Warranty gives Purchasers specific legal rights, and Purchasers may also have other rights which vary by jurisdiction, including that certain jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages or limitations on duration of implied warranties, so some of the above limitations may not apply to certain Purchasers.
